

WORKPLACE COMPLIANCE POLICY AND RISK MANAGEMENT IN THE NEW ADMINISTRATION

- Briefings from senior DOL, EEOC, and NLRB officials on the new administration’s workplace policy and enforcement priorities
- An examination of the workplace legislative priorities of the 115th U.S. Congress
- A workplace civil rights roundtable featuring leading civil rights advocates, employment attorneys, compliance practitioners, and D&I professionals
- A retrospective review of OFCCP’s recent accomplishments, and a preview of what OFCCP enforcement will look like in the new administration
- A member-employer panel discussion of how multi-state employers manage compliance with an evolving patchwork of state and local compliance requirements
- An EEAC staff update interpreting and explaining the latest workplace compliance policy developments
- Updates on (and from) federal workplace regulators in the areas of wage and hour, contract compliance, and immigration policy and enforcement
- Members-only networking opportunities including two evening receptions, a luncheon briefing, staff-hosted dinners, and a final day breakfast session

REGISTRATION

DATE	FEE
Until February 14	$899
February 15 and after	$950

Check-in begins at 1 p.m. EST on Wednesday, March 22.
Final session concludes at noon on Friday, March 24.

HOTEL RESERVATIONS

JW Marriott
Washington, DC
EEAC’s group rate $389/night
Reserve online or by calling
1-800-393-2503.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Contact Blake Goldmerstein at 202-629-5696 or
bgoldmerstein@eeac.org.

CERTIFICATION

EEAC intends to submit this event for HRCI and SHRM recertification. CLE credit for most jurisdictions available.

QUESTIONS

Contact Samantha Wittie at 202-629-5633 or
swittie@eeac.org.